REZULIN®

Effective March 22, 2000

PACE no longer reimburses for REZULIN®.

This action is in response to the Warner Lambert Company's voluntary withdrawal of REZULIN® from the marketplace on Tuesday, March 21, 2000. The Warner-Lambert Company announced this action in response to the U.S. Food and Drug Administration's concerns about liver toxicity.

Warner-Lambert advises that with patients currently taking REZULIN® to consult their physicians as soon as possible to discuss alternative therapies.

Providers wishing more information about REZULIN® may access the Warner-Lambert website at:
